

SEEN, HEARD
AND TOLD
BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.—Acts 4:2.

Tuesday is the General Election. It looks like it will be the great day when the gredrepublican administration goes down the drain.

On the ballot, there are two proposals to change the Constitution.
If you don't vote either way on the proposals, you automatically vote against them. If you are not positive about the virtues of the amendment, it is always a good way to do is
NOT vote at all on amendments.

While it is not officially known, it is thought that the Trust Bank's handsome new building will be formally opened Monday. While it is smaller than the Grenada Bank building, it is none the less complete for its purposes.

With all these ads this week, we lost a lotta money and we had to put the double squeeze on news.

Kyle Horton, yet another Horton was added to our mailing list this week. There is a lotta Hortons this year.

More and more citizens, I see edging up closer to J. P. Coleman, candidate for governor. He never did allow the reins to slacken on the gredrepublicans.

See if you can understand this word: snailbuperg.

I guess now Mr. Friedman, by fair competitive test, has shown that he is indeed the best fisherman. Crowning his cross of glory was the defeating 8 to 7 of that bragant fisherman T. Darras. All his friends glory in his monumental achievement.

Ellis Lawrence of Greenwood, one of those members of the banking fraternity, was among the many prominent men who facilitated Grenada Bank on its opening Monday.

Albert Cohen, Sax Weir, Cliff
Hamby. They cant now say the GCW isn't worth a damn no more.

You-all have been doing right well without us bothering to mail you formal statements about your subscriptions. Just keep looking at your colored slips on the paper and keep paid up promptly.

I am plying between the title,
One-Fish Whitaker and No-Fish
Whitaker.

Daves has sold that pot-licker
boud to some sucker.

The farm picture shown week before last was, I understand, is now owned by J. B. Bailey and is the Best Willis old home that was reconstructed by Mrs. Maud Willis prior to her death. The picture, that is the actual photograph, is still here waiting for Mr. Bailey. When Mrs.
Willis died, the place was inherited by the Parkers, her nieces and nephews.

Andrew went to Enid Sunday afternoon and caught 5 crappies that weighed 9 pounds. The largest of the bunch weighed 2 lbs. 5 ounces.

Sam (Heckie) Marasaleo went to Enid Tuesday and caught three crappies weighing from 1 lb. 12 ozs. to 2
lbs. 2 ounces.

SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

Miss Jane Young returned to the Reaves home in Texas for a visit with her sister, "Miss" Kate Reaves, and everybody should be mighty happy that Miss Jane has got away from the routine duties of home and family. Personally, I have known Miss Jane for over 50 years and I fail to recall that she ever got away on a trip before.

I was delighted Sunday morning to see somebody I ain't seen in many, many years, in the person of Rheuben

He was raised in what was then the southern outskirts of Grenada, with the Gozas, Bledsoes and Greenhaws. The street he lived on probably had a name, maybe, Adams, but noody paid any attention to street names or street numbers.

We Plow Our Profits Back Into the South

Operating exclusively in the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi, and with all of our properties and two-thirds of our stockholders in these five states, we are truly a Southern Institution.

And, we spend our money where we make it — in the South.

During 1953, the Company's expenditures in these southern states, for additional real estate, buildings and facilities . . . enlargement, repair and maintenance of present plants and equipment . . . and all expenses of operation, including payrolls, licenses and taxes (excluding income taxes) — amounted to $36,000,000.00.

For the same year, two-thirds of the Company's dividends were paid to its approximately 14,000 stockholders in the five southern states — Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi — which it serves.

We have hitched our wagon to a star — the ever increasing growth of the South. Our future is the future of the South. We never lose sight of this fact in making plans and expenditures.

"Truly a Southern Institution"

The noises of everyday living . . .
 . . . all of the sounds we take for granted
 . . . are shut out for this young lady . . . lost behind . . .
a barrier of silence.
 But this child is fortunate . . .
 she lives in a country where people work together to break this barrier.

Mississippi School for the Deaf is now celebrating its one hundredth anniversary. Since 1854, this state institution has been serving Mississippi youth handicapped by deafness. A total of 2,022 students have been trained to become useful, happy citizens by a staff of experts who have devoted their lives to breaking the barrier of silence.

This is just one of the many tax-supported institutions in our state performing services vital to the health and well being of Mississippians. As a taxpayer, Mississippi Power & Light Company has a great deal of interest in these institutions and the work that they are doing.

In 1953, 22.5¢ of each dollar of revenue received by Mississippi Power & Light Company went for the payment of taxes. A total of $5,358,153.00 was set aside by the Company to pay its tax bill, and of this amount, $2,165,952.00 stayed in Mississippi for state, county and municipal taxes.

The average yearly cost per student over the centennial period at Mississippi School for the Deaf is $388.42. Therefore, Mississippi Power & Light Company's state, county and municipal taxes in 1953 would have sent 5,582 students to the school for a year . . . or over twice as many students as have attended the school since its founding a century ago.

Mississippi School for the Deaf has recently moved into a modern, nine-building plant which is located on a 51 acre campus. The building cost for this badly needed state school was $1,700,000.00. Again, the more than two million dollars in state, county and municipal taxes paid by Mississippi Power & Light Company, could have amply paid for the entire cost of building this state structure.

Mississippi Power & Light Company feels that Mississippi School for the Deaf is performing a service that is "Helping Build Mississippi," and the Company is proud to play a part in its development.

KEYNOTE OF THE DAY

The early part of the nineteenth century is recognized as the beginning of the machine age. With the machine age came modern medicine and pharmacy. Average life expectancy in 1850 was 39.8 years. Today it is about 69 years. Better living, better health, and longer life are the keynotes of the twentieth century. The art of the apothecary has been prominent in all medical progress. We are proud to supplement the skill of your physician by compounding your prescription with professional care and fine pharmaceuticals.

Work Worthwhile

Lesson for October 31, 1954

SOME very kind-hearted person remarked that something good could be said about everybody. "What good could you say of the devil?" he was asked. "Well," he answered, "the devil's a mighty hard worker!"—which goes to show that work, by itself, is not necessarily a good thing. It depends on what you work at, and on what comes of your efforts. Work is certainly not good if it does harm. If only the devil had been born lazy, how much better this world might be! Work is not good, Dr. Foreman either, when it is nothing but "busy-work," mere effort with no purpose, nothing to be gained by it. A person could go down to the seashore with a large shovel and pile up a mountain of sand one day and shovel the whole thing flat again the next day... but so what? Aside from the exercise, no use at all. And the exercise itself might be better gotten in other ways.

Work and Value

Work has dignity, work is worthwhile, only under certain conditions. One of these conditions can be expressed in this way: Does the work increase or create value? A piece of iron is worth far less than the same iron made into steel watch springs. The work done adds to the cost, of course, but also to the real value. A weedy, eroded field is not worth what the same field is worth when it has been worked, fertilized, planted, cultivated and a fine crop of potatoes, cotton, wheat or what not is growing there. Karl Marx pointed this out in the 19th century, only he overlooked something important. He seems to have had the notion that the only work that adds to the value of things is manual labor.

It is true, as he said, that the toll of the miners goes into the value of the coal you burn; but he was wrong in thinking that labor contributes everything, management nothing. A president (a good one, no stuffed shirt) sitting in his office may not do enough physical work in the course of a week to raise a drop of perspiration. But his plans and decisions are work too, and they may add more value to what his plant turns out than any 20 stevedores on the place.

Work and Character

Work has dignity too, and it is worthwhile, when it produces that highest of all values, character. The many contrasts in Proverbs between the worker and the lazy lout bring this out. The worker is not only adding to the sum of values in the world, he is building his own character. The hand of the diligent shall rule, one Proverb says. That is, the worker grows capable by the very work he does. The reward of good work is not usually a vacation but a promotion, that is to say, a chance to do more work on a larger scale. Most Presidents of the United States, however capable they were when they were elected, left the White House abler men than when they entered. This is all just as true on the humbler levels of life. All work has dignity, all work is worthwhile, when it adds to human values and when it builds the character of the worker. A garbage collector is adding to the health-values of the community; and if he is a good one (no stuffed blue shirt!) he can be growing in character too. There is a certain professional cleaner of grease traps who looks on his work with such pride and satisfaction that he has been an inspirer of other men.

Laziness Is a Sin

The Proverbs point out three sins in this area of life. One is pure laziness. The lazy man does not usually think of himself as a sinner. He isn't doing anything. But that is just the point. Not doing what needs to be done is a real sin, it eats out the lazy man's character in no time. Another sin is slackness, the "sin of slapdash." The man who is slack in his work is brother to the destroyer, it is said. How many buildings have burned down because of "defective wiring!" And what does any price of defective wiring spell but somebody's carelessness on the job? How many crops have been lost not because any one destroyed them but just because what had to be done was not well done?

Jerry and Jane look at the "Old Days"

WHEN I WAS A BOY WE DIDN'T HAVE RADIO, CARS OR EVEN TRACTORS. WE EVEN HAD TO WORK HARD JUST TO KEEP THE HOUSE WARM.

WE DIDN'T HAVE GAS THEN I HAD TO CHOP AND CARRY MANY A TON OF WOOD FOR HEATING AND COOKING.

DID DADDY HAVE TO DO ALL THAT?

NO, MODERN TIMES WERE HERE THEN... WE HAD THE HOUSE PIPED FOR GAS AND DIDN'T BOTHER WITH ASHES. OR A WOOD PILE ANY MORE.

I SURE AM GLAD.

SO AM I.

...I DON'T SEE HOW ANYBODY DID ALL THAT COOKING ON AN OLD STOVE!

GAS REALLY HAS MADE THINGS EASIER.

The motoramic Chevrolet for '55

Chevrolet and General Motors took a whole new look at the low-cost car—and just look what happened!

NOW BEING SHOWN!

The Bel Air Sport Coupe—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series.

The valve-in-head V-8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

8

Now Chevrolet, the leading builder of valve-in-head engines, introduces the "Turbo-Fire V8." It carries the V8 design to a new high in efficiency with its high-horsepower (162), high-compression (8 to 1), high performance and surprisingly high gas mileage. Available with standard transmission, or with the extra-cost options of Overdrive or Powerglide.

You can choose from two new sixes, too!

Chevrolet also offers the last word in six-cylinder performance and economy! There's a new "Blue-Flame 136" teamed with Powerglide and a new "Blue-Flame 123" with either standard transmission or Overdrive.

Can't you tell just by looking that Chevrolet and General Motors have come up with a completely new idea about the low-priced car? The idea is this: to build a car that offers the very newest thing in styling, the most modern features, the finest kind of performance and the highest quality of manufacture—all at a modest price. It's something that took a lot of doing and that only the world's leading car builders could do. Everything's new in this Motoramic Chevrolet from its lower top right down to its tubeless tires. Come in for the most fascinating visit you ever made to an automobile showroom!
